

Wethersfield Academy for the Arts

Join us for Virtual Lectures and Music - Free

J. W. Waterhouse

A Virtual Lecture with Peter Trippi

Thursday, Feb. 25, 2021 6:30pm

J. W. Waterhouse (1849–1917) the British artist who drew inspiration from classical mythology, Romantic literature, and medieval legend while painting large, colorful scenes admired worldwide since his heyday in the 1890s. Waterhouse's biographer, Peter Trippi, takes a closer look at his career and legacy.

The Story Behind Art Commissions

A Virtual Conversation led by Richard Scott with Mario Robinson, Patricia Wattwood and Martin Wittfooth

Thursday, March 11, 2021 7pm

Join us for a conversation between four realist portrait artists with strong stylistic foundations. They will share stories of how they came across commission work, the challenges they faced, what they have learned through the process and more.

Miss Maybell and the Jazz Age Artistes'

A Virtual Concert with Lauren Sansaricq on vocals, washboard, guitar and banjo; Charlie Judkins on Piano; Brian Nalepka on Bass & Tuba.

Friday, April 1, 2021 7pm

From Ragtime to Jazz: 1900 to 1930 with songs chronologically showing how American song-writing changed in the early 20th century.

FREE Lecture, Conversation and Music with REGISTRATION @ info@wethersfieldarts.org